Tomorrow's Events

Mrs. Edward H. Cooke, luncheon for Mrs. Russell Halliburton.
Mr. and Mrs. Millard Russell dinner at Country club for Miss Martha Holmes of Kansas City.
Ladies' Music club at Musical Art;
Dinner Dance at Country club.
Morning Bridge, Mrs. Carl Gitsch.
Saturday Night Players, Mrs. R.
V. Hurter.
Ready-to-Help Evening, Miss Carrie
Morris.
Evening Bridge, Mrs. Frank Finch.

DISTINGUISHED by the most charming hospitality and fraught with greatest pleasure was the afternoon at auction given Thursday at the Lee-Hurter hotel. Much regret was expressed by the guests that the hostess stated, "Mrs. William Dalessi of Shorewood, has had her home before the event which had been planned in her home." The programme was fragrant with the perfume from many flowers. Nicetons tables of guests opened the afternoon with their game of auction. Mrs. John Finch made the high score of the afternoon and her favoritism well as for the consolation which went to the lot. Mr. Ed. Gitsch was a handsome tanned picture. Mrs. Russell P. Halliburton was presented with a large cluster of pink roses. The hostess was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Bernard H. Jones, Mrs. T. P. Martin Jr. and Miss Genelle Haile. The guests, who numbered eighty, welcomed with delight the advent of Mrs. Hacking's little son, Master Alan, who joined them during the luncheon hour.

Miss Martha Holmes, who has been the guest of Mrs. John H. Pendleton for several weeks, has returned to her home in New York.

* * *

Mrs. E. J. DeLoach entertained the old Colony club Thursday at 1 o'clock luncheon. Bows and honeysuckles decorated the tables, and dainty Japanese robes were given as favors, while Japanese umbrellas were the tallest. Fred Fargus made the high score. Mr. C. Harry Hamill will entertain the club in two weeks.

Like a garden of spring flowers was the home of Mrs. C. E. Hall Thursday afternoon, when she entertained fifty guests with a 1 o'clock luncheon followed by bridge. All the radiant colors of the rainbow decked the luncheon tables, each one being distinctively different in its floral appointments; pastel white, yellow, orange, blue, the violet, sweetpeas, carnations, red, white, pink and yellow roses filling the tall baskets in the center, from which radiated ribbons of the prevailing shades in the tiny napkins marking the places. The room was both rhythmic and delicate in its decorations, presented like a May flower Young and Allen's were seen. Misses Parkinson, Feltz, Harry, Smith and W. T. Webb assisted the hostess in serving. High score of the game of make shift was the announcement of the afternoon, and engendered much amusement. The hostess for the 10 meeting in two weeks will be announced later.

* * *

Miss B. O. Evans of Dallas, Texas, guest of Mrs. M. C. McMillen, was invited Saturday at the McMillen Culture Club. Guests included Misses V. M. Thompson, Charles Smith and Miss Lillian Custer. A game of make shift was the announcement of the afternoon, and engendered much amusement. The hostess for the 10 meeting in two weeks will be announced later.

* * *

Miss Billy Brumley had an added guest at the McMillen Culture Club Thursday evening—Misses George, Mrs. Charles Smith and Miss Lillian Custer. A game of make shift was the announcement of the afternoon, and engendered much amusement. The hostess for the 10 meeting in two weeks will be announced later.

* * *

Misses Young and Allen presented the luncheon at the McMillen Culture Club Thursday evening. High score of the game was made by Mrs. Mike Denney, who was presented with a silver hand receiver. Miss B. O. Evans of Dallas was the recipient of a piece of cut-glass for consolation, and Mrs. T. Logan of Chandler and Misses Hartnett, Kewell and Joseph, Mrs. were presented with boxes of pink and blue statiners. The Misses Young and Allen received crepe de chine handkerchiefs.

* * *

Miss Elizabeth Brumley will be the guest of honor at a buffer luncheon to be given Saturday by Mrs. A. J. Bradlee.

Reductions of 1-4, 1-3 and 1-2

We re-opened the great sale of a week ago for the sole purpose of accommodating women who heard of the sale too late or who could not get here from other cities. On the stroke of 8 o'clock Saturday morning our stocks will be ready for the final day of the biggest and best suit event of the year. This is positively the last call and we hope no one will be disappointed after the doors close at 6 o'clock Saturday night. Frankly, this is not a sale for the narrow
